

*Cairo University
Faculty of Archaeology
Department of Egyptology*

ROYAL STABLES AND TWO SNAKE GODDESSES FROM THE GERMAN EXCAVATION AT QANTIR

*Thesis Submitted for M.A. Degree In Egyptology
Faculty of Archaeology
Department of Egyptology
Cairo University*

Presented By
AIMAN ESHMAWY ALI

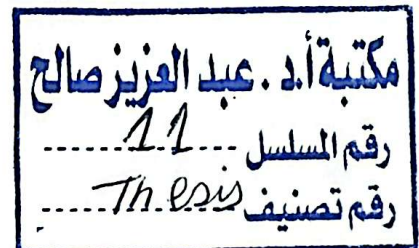

Supervised By

PROF. DR. ALI RADWAN

*Professor of Egyptology
Faculty of Archaeology
Cairo University*

VOLUME I TEXT

Cairo
2002

INDEX

	Page
Preface
List of abbreviations.
List of tables.
 Part I “The royal stables at Qantir “Site Q. IV”
Chapter I: Introduction: “The City of per-Ramesses”	1
Tell Basta.....	2
Tell El-Retabeh.....	4
Tell El-Maskhuta.....	5
Pelusium.....	7
Tanis.....	10
Qantir.....	13
Other places with the name of “Per-Ramesses”.....	17
 Chapter II: The royal stables at Qantir “Site Q.IV”
A. I. The lexical items	20
I.1. Textal evidences.....	22
II. Pictorial evidences.....	24
III. Archaeological evidences.....	27
B. The royal stables at Qantir “Statum Bb”	30
Description of the stables “Stratum Bb”.....	31
Identification of the building as stable for horses.....	31
Description of the second unit.....	33
Number of the horses kept in the stable.....	37
General notes on the stable building.....	38
Discussion	38
Excursus 1: Building which were identified wrongly as stables.....	41
 Chapter III: Study of the stable elements
III.1. Types of tethering stones.....	43
III.2. Drainage system in the stable.....	43
III. 3. Different methods of tethering animals in Ancient Egypt.....	43
III.4. Types of mangers.....	47

	Page
Chapter IV: Names of the horses in Ancient Egypt.....	54
Discussion.....	81
Excursus 2: Words referring to horses in Ancient Egyptian language.....	83
Excursus 3: Did the temples possess horses among its wealth?.....	86
Chapter V: The administration of the stable.....	88
A. The stable master.....	89
A.I. In the 18 th Dynasty.....	89
A.II. In the 19 th Dynasty.....	95
B. Master of the horses	105
B. I. In the 18 th Dynasty.....	105
B. II. In The 19 th Dynasty.....	109
B.III. In the 20 th Dynasty.....	112
C. Scribe for the horses and the stable	113
Head master of the stable.....	114
Commander of horses.....	114
Charioteer of the stable.....	115
Discussion.....	117
I. Stable master
A. The grades of this office.....	117
B. The age of the stable master while holding the office.....	119
C. The role of the stable master.....	119
D. The standing of the stable master.....	121
II. Master of the horses
A. Grades of this office.....	122
B. The standing and activities of the master of the horses...	122
III. Scribal ranks.....	123
 Part II "Two snake goddesses and related pieces"
Chapter I. Discovery and study of the objects.....	129
I. Finding circumstance.....	129
II. Description of the objects.....	131
III. Study of the snake statues.....	137
Catalogue:
Examples of the kings in snake shape with human head.....	137

	Page
I. Examples of male gods as snakes with human head...	138
II. Examples of snake goddesses with human head.....	143
III.1. Examples from representation "drawing".....	143
III.2. Examples from representation "relief's".....	145
III.3. Examples of snake goddesses with women head (Statues and Amulets).....	148
III.4. Alphabetic signs.....	158
Discussion	158
IV. Mycenaean pilgrim flask.....	162
Chapter II: The original place of the statues.	167
Chapter III: An analyzing study of the goddesses of "per-Ramesses".	172
Chapter IV: Snake goddess in Ancient Egypt.	186
Chapter V: The identification between the statues and the snake goddesses, "Which goddess is she?.....	195
Summary.	204
List of the horses names	208
List of some Hieroglyphic items mentioned in the text	209
References	211
Arabic Summary.	