ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful deeply to Dr. Mohamed Salah Mohamed Ahmed el-Kholy, Department of Egyptology, Cairo University, for his kind and unfailing support on my thesis. I also thank Dr. Ola el-Augezy, and Dr. Mahmoud Abder-Raziq, who reviewed my thesis. My appreciation goes to Dr. Ahmed Galal, and again to Dr. Ola el-Augezy, who gave me many useful suggestions during their stay at Kansai University.

My great thanks go to Dr. Ahmed Sayed Ahmed Shoeib, Department of Conservation, Cairo University and Dr. Adel Ibrahim Mohamed Akarish, Department of Geology, the National Research Centre. They encouraged me always during these years I prepared this thesis. Without their encouragement, this thesis would not have come out.

Finally, I appreciate all people who are concerned with this thesis, doctors at Faculty of Archaeology, Cairo University, Mr. Mohamed Bagdady and other members of the Administration Department of Higher Education and Research, and my family, who helped me to finish writhing the thesis.
