

The vision of the Islamic department program

To let the program of Islamic Archaeology in Faculty of Archaeology Cairo University be one of the best programs among the Faculties of Archaeology of third generation Universal Universities which are witnessed for excellence in scientific research, knowledge consolidation, formation, spread and application to enhance individual's lives ,society, and the surrounded environment.

Mission

The commitment of the program of Islamic Archaeology in Faculty of Archaeology Cairo University is to present educational, social, training research services to present qualified professional graduates and specialists researchers that can keep up with the scientific and technical developments which meets the requirements of the business market's needs of the Islamic Archaeology study field , and all Archaeological fields , regarding that The Heritage is considered a very important strategic rectifies that reinforces the soul of affiliation , citizenship, and preserving the national identity to achieve the sustainable development in all fields in view of the concept of the comprehensive national security and according to the quality standers and scientific progress.

Goals

- 1- To raise the graduate's level to fit with the business market.
- 2- To develop the student's skills in the field research by training him to be able to manage the archaeological sites and write scientific reports.
- 3- To be able to contribute in spreading archaeological awareness.

- 4- To form an informed base of graduates that contributes in correcting the wrong archaeological concepts in order to improve the society's cultural level.
- 5- To let the graduate be able to deal with the modern technology in the field of archaeological studies to improve his performance in order to be more distinguished of all graduates in corresponding faculties.